PRESS RELEASE November 4, 2011

On 11-3-2011 at 2218 hrs., the Lake County Sheriff's Office responded to 862 Beech Ave in Painesville Twp. for a report of an intoxicated male outside a residence. Dispatch received other calls from residents on Beech Ave. that the same intoxicated male was going door to door looking for someone. While in rout, the resident at 862 Beech reported that the male had entered the home through an unlocked door and that her husband had walked the intoxicated male back outside and was awaiting the arrival of the LCSO. Upon the arrival of deputies, the male was identified as 25 year old Troy R Rigby of Painesville Twp. Rigby was observed to be highly intoxicated and conveyed to deputies that someone else he knew lived at this address. Rigby was highly intoxicated and unable to care for himself. Rigby was placed under arrest for disorderly conduct. Subsequent to his arrest, deputies located a pipe suspected to be drug paraphernalia and also a small plastic baggy which contained marijuana. Rigby was also charged with possession of marijuana and drug paraphernalia. Rigby was booked in at the Lake County
